Field Trip Review: Sorry no fieldtrip review for June 2007.

I am very happy to announce the marriage of Jackie Vignone, to me, Jerry Moldenhauer. The happy occasion took place June 20, 2007, at Fox Run Park. Almost four years after our first date. Jackie and I met at the Pikes Peak Camera Club! I then asked Jackie if she wanted join me to shoot "Lights in Motion", one the subjects a few years ago. She accepted my invitation, and as they say, the rest is history. We have been very busy with all the wedding arrangements, the sell of my house, buying a new home together, and getting Jackie's house ready to list, wow, what a Spring this has been! Jackie and I did manage to take a couple of days for relaxing trip. We went to the Pawnee Buttes; I guess that was our June field trip. Hopefully you'll see a few images from our honeymoon get away...

Projected Digital Images:

Projected Digital Image Competition of the Pikes Peak Camera Club made it's debut last month. And what a great debut it was! I hope you checked out the website to see all the winning images, wow some great stuff! As you noticed the leading page photograph came from the PDI category. Anyone that competes in PDI may bring up to four digital images to show. Two for the Open category, and two for the Subject category. For image format and other digital image information please see the June newsletter.

Just a personal note: I'm very happy to see the digital era starting at the PPCC. Although I did hear a few comments about how "far" or how "artsy" we should go with the digital images. I also had conversations about this with a few PPCC members. Lets try to remember this new division is called Projected Digital Image. Also, I think the judge made a very clear statement that anything goes here. Take a look at the winners, and you'll see both great photography, as well as extreme digitized images. I feel this topic is not for me to decide, I feel it's up to the PPCC members to decide.

The Presidents Corner:

Time has escaped me this month I seem to be late on everything including writing this.

The July meeting will go forth as usual even though it is the day before the 4th. I hope this does not interfere with anyone's plans, but to change would require getting the room a week later and could cause a problem.

Rita has offered members of the club to come to her house and photograph the fireworks from Sky Sox Park on the 3rd. Thanks Rita for the offer, and I hope we can plan that for next year as well. I'm sure many members would like to photograph fireworks close-up.

There will be no board meeting on July 17 both Bruce and I will be on vacation.

Wendell gave a great presentation and show on China. He will be moving to AZ and will certainly be missed. Thanks Wendell for all you did for this club, and I hope you come back and visit us.
