“The Greatest Gift – Pride” by Debi Boucher

The Presidents Corner:

Hello Everyone,

October will soon be upon us and I need to ask for a volunteer or volunteers for the 2012 Board of Governors Nominating Committee. As is stands, the club will be looking to fill the Vice President's position as well as the President's position. The committee will need to find volunteers to fill these positions. If all Board positions have only one candidate, the committee will raise a motion that the slate of candidates be approved by a vote. If there is a board position that has more than one candidate running for it, then there will be a vote to see who is elected to the final slate of officers; then we'll vote to accept the final slate of officers.

I will also be looking for a Monthly Subject Committee of three. This committee will chose the monthly subjects for 2012. In the past few years the membership has put their suggestion in a hat and the committee selected subjects from these suggestions. There has already been a suggestion that we use song titles for each 2011 monthly subject. I personally like this idea. When you think about it, there are many song titles that can be used as photographic subjects.

There is a suggestion that for April's subject, we use "Stands On Its Own" as we did this past April.

There is also a suggestion that we have Critique Nights to replace some competition nights. Therefore, March, June and September could be Critique Nights.

Keep in mind that these are suggestions. We will discuss them at the October meeting, and vote on them at the November meeting. We will also be voting on the slate of candidates running for the Board of Governors in November as well. I encourage everyone that can to be present at the November meeting.

“Weather-beaten Tree” by Tim Starr

I started out taking pictures mainly on family vacations, hunting and fishing trips, when I was young. My first camera was a Kodak Duraflex that my grandpa gave me. Then, my parents bought me a Kodak Instamatic. I was taking slides with the Instamatic back in the 60's. My first SLR camera was a Minolta XG7 with three fixed lenses. I bought this in the spring of 1982. My first auto focus camera was a Nikon N60, with a zoom lens. I bought it in February 2000. I have bought a Nikon N90 and a N80 with telephoto zoom lenses that I use now. Last Christmas, my daughter and son in law gave me a Canon Power Shot Digital Elph that I have been using also. I still have all my cameras and lenses except for my Kodak Instamatic.

T.W. introduced me to the Camera Club in May of 2000, and I have been a member since that time. I have learned a lot from the Club and the judges in that time. I love hiking in the mountains and taking pictures of scenery, wildlife and what ever inspires me. I still take my SLR, and my tripod and shoot slides when I go hiking, but I also take my digital camera and take more pictures with it now, than my SLR. One of these days I might even enter some of my better shots into competition.

If any of you would like to see my digital photos, befriend me on Facebook, where I have my photos of my hikes, etc.

Thanks,
Tom Moldenhauer
