THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Debi Boucher

Hello PPCC Members,

Having recently volunteered to step into Galen's shoes as club VP, I am attempting to grow our pool of potential judges for our competitions. I have perused countless websites, including those of local colleges and art schools to compile a list of men and women in our community with an association to photography and/or the arts that may be willing to judge our competitions. I will be sending each of them a letter of invitation to join us as judges from time to time.

I am hopeful for a successful response, but would like to encourage each of you to share any ideas or suggestions you may have. Do you know of someone I might contact? Do you know of a source I might explore for other candidates? I am open to any and all suggestions so please feel free to contact me with your thoughts.

I thank you all for your votes of confidence, and will strive to make a meaningful contribution as Vice President of the Pikes Peak Camera Club.

THINGS TO KNOW.....

- 1. Due to Tim Starr moving to Florida, at our last meeting, we voted on some new club officers. Debi Boucher will be the new Vice President. Galen Short will be our new Web Design Master.
- 2. Starting in June, our meetings will now be the second Wednesday of the month. So, our June meeting will be on Wednesday, June 11. If we need a second monthly meeting, it will be the fourth Wednesday of the month. These changes came from the Church asking us to move our day due to them needing the room for children when they have their Tuesday meetings.
- 3. This coming Tuesday, April 15th, Debi Boucher will be conducting a Layers 101 class. The focus of the class will be on using layers and layer masks in Photoshop. She will walk everyone through creating a basic composite image using three separate images.
